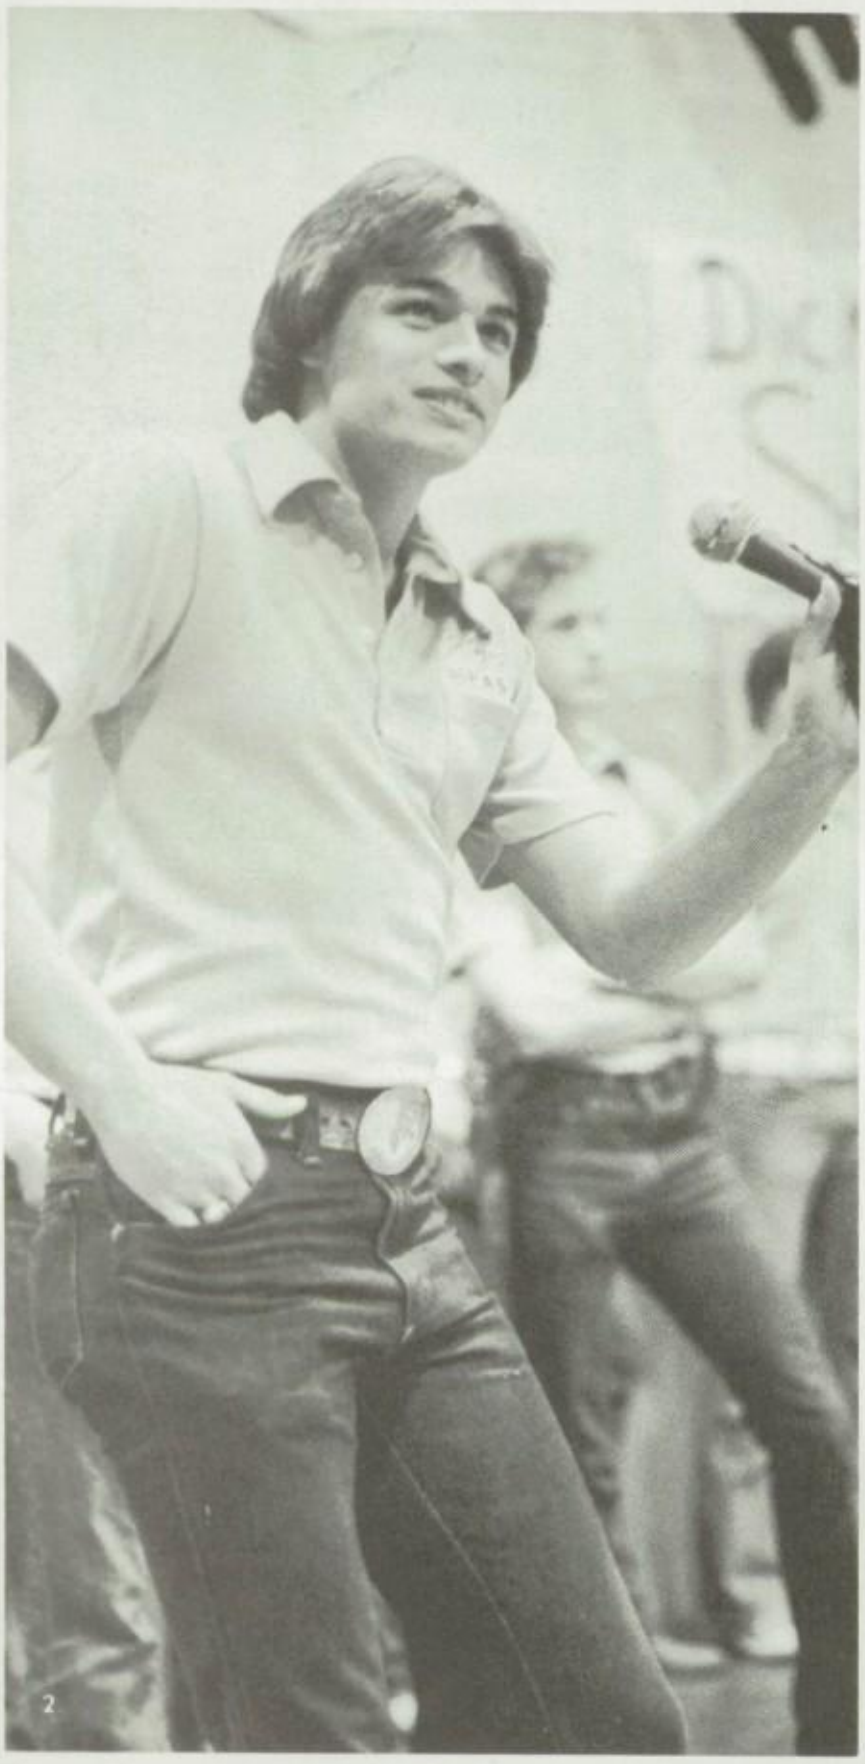
Senior Bob Duncan tries to take a nap since it is too early to be going to school.

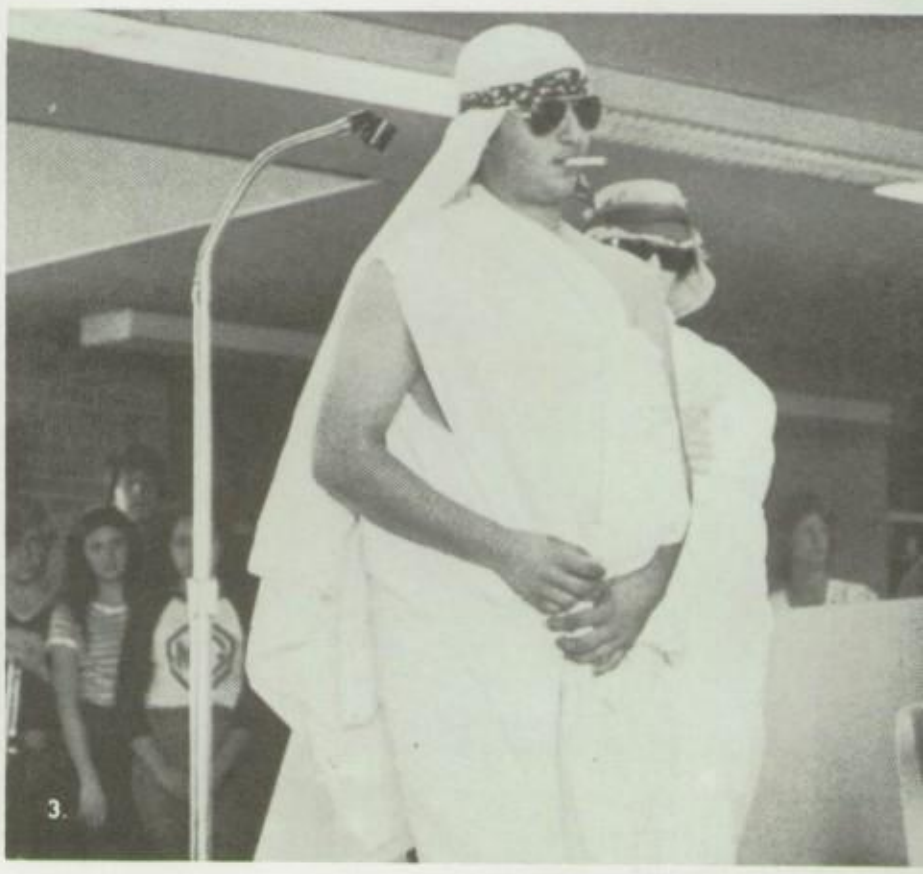
Seniors . . .

1. "I'm a wild and crazy Supercat!" Robin Koederitz, senior, shows her school support by wearing one of many T-shirts that display school pride.
2. Senior Ricky Barron fires up the Bobcats at the Big Spring pep rally. The Cats beat the steers 42-12 in the last game of the season.
3. Oil sheiks, Pete Zotos (front) and Clark Gill (back), make a slick attempt for votes in Pete's campaign skit for senior class president.
4. Although the seniors tried and tried, their pyramid collapsed during the pyramid contest of Homecoming week.

1.

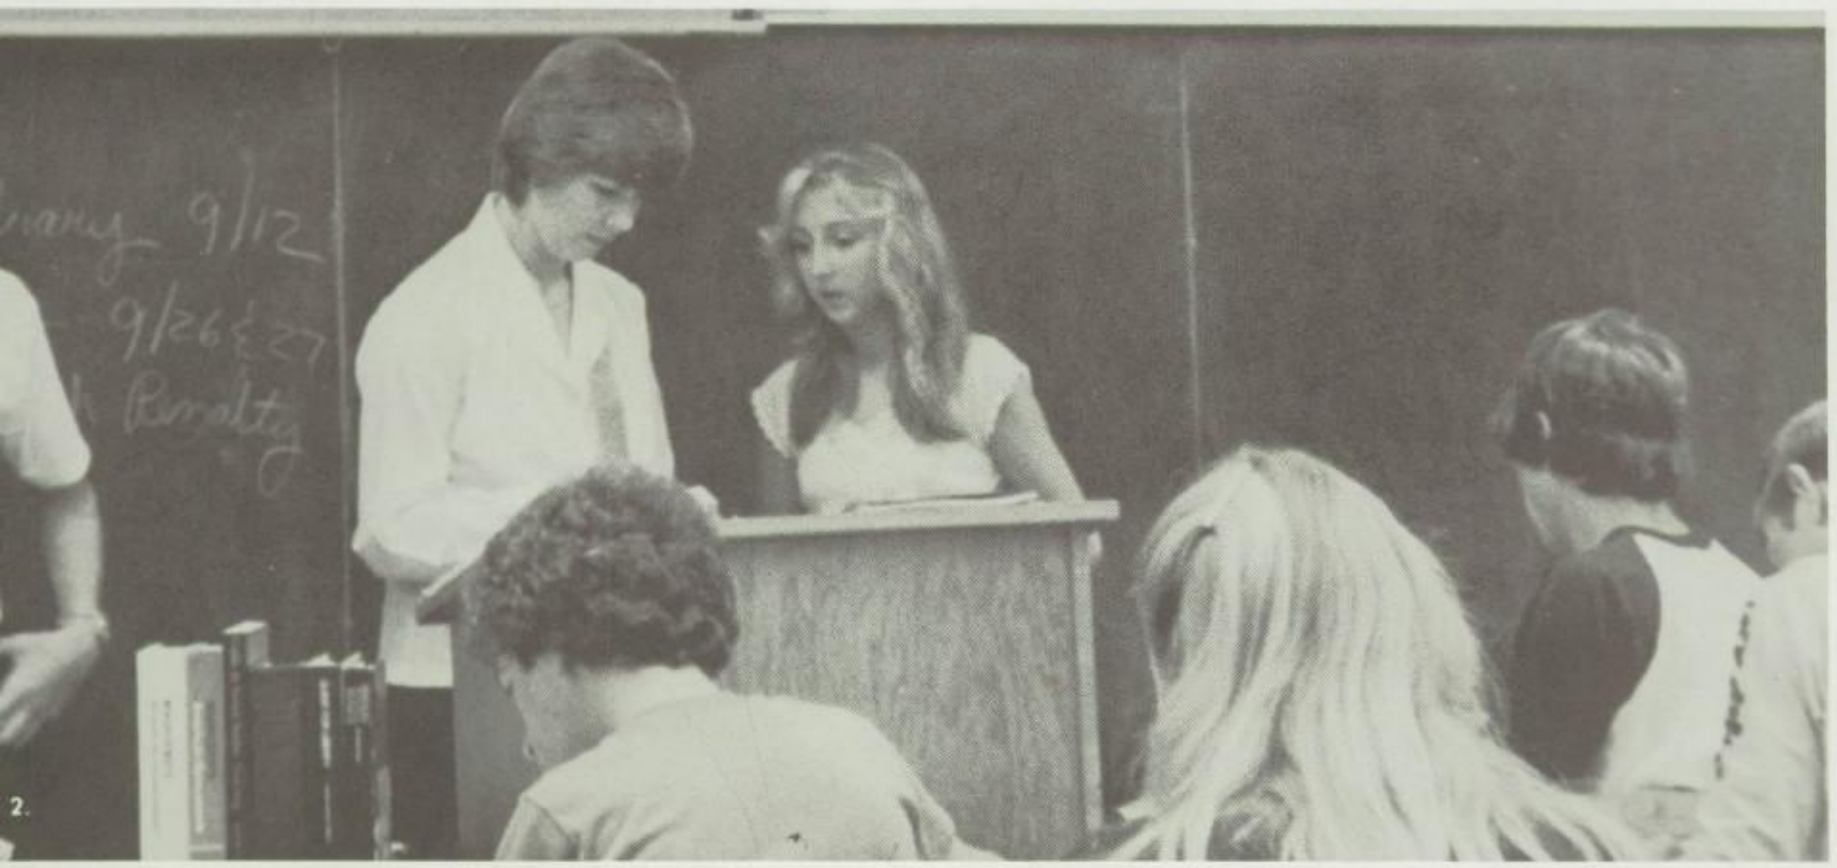


2



3.

4.



1. Presidential Classroom winner April Coldsmith, left, and first alternate, Alice Wueste laugh at a remark during their qualifier interview.
2. Teacher Linda Shoemaker takes time out from a lecture to explain something to one of her students. One of the requirements for graduation from Central is a year of government. The class is mostly for seniors, although a few juniors take it.
3. Senior Paul Guajardo, a CHS publications photographer, decides to get on the other side of the lens.

Wotty!
Hi! Just think,
when you're 35 years
old you'll read this and giggle. (with your clothes on!) Scott, please, get out of the habits of stopping
"talk" to stop people every time you see! I love you to stop to let you
Let's go, I love
sometime! Please?
Scotty! I hope you can get "involved

Fellowship Christian Athletes

Fellowship Christian Athletes is a club composed of two groups, both boys and girls. The groups are divided into two groups for the reason that the National Organization Council will not allow the groups to be combined. The girls meet to help improve themselves and to help their work by reading the Bible and also discussing Christian concepts. They raise their money by having both bake and garage sales. This year they hope to send two girls to the state conference in Waco. The boys FCA has a different basis than the girls. They bring together athletes who discuss and share their problems, also to glorify the Lord. Their common projects are to ensure money for speakers in the fieldhouse and to send five men to Colorado for the National FCA Convention. They raise their money by working for people and whatever they feel is needed.

The Central High swimmers surprised some teams this year with their improved performance. There were five school records broken along with achieving their best times individually. Co-Captains Steve Templeton and Martha Warron, led the way with Steve being state qualifier and breaking two records set back in 1968. Martha Warron was a regional finalist in two events and set a school record in the 100 breaststroke. James Buck had a great year, setting the district and school record in the 500 freestyle. George Randall and David Monk combined with Steve Templeton and James Buck in the 400 freestyle relay to set a district record. Good efforts also came from Keeva Ward, Tomoko Nakagawa, Deni Smith, Diane Clark, Barbara Crossey, John Allison, Mike James, Jeff Boyd who were all Regional Finalists.

Girls' Gymnastics

Although Central's women's gymnastics team did not qualify for the state championships as a team, three members reached the state competition in their individual events. Leigh Kever had an outstanding year in the All-American Competition and in each of the four women's events. Leigh reached the finals at the Texas High School Gymnastics Coaches Association Championships in the vault and uneven bars. Leigh is the only woman Bobcat gymnast to win two medals at the State Championships. She won a bronze medal in the Vault and Uneven Bars. Sharon Miller, a senior, and sophomore Leslie Gray qualified to the State meet, Sharon on the Uneven Bars and the Vault, and Leslie on the Vault. Leigh Kever was also named All-American for her performance in the Vault.

San Angelo Relays

The 22nd Annual San Angelo Relays, co-sponsored by the Chamber of Congress and Central High. Approximately 60 schools participated. This event is recognized for its size, fine facilities, and organization by 11-year track coach, Ken Fannon. The Relays were established in 1959 by the late Dr. Charles Courtin; through his efforts the relays have become one of the most successful events in the state.

I don't know where to start. I guess with Mrs. Gray and my pinkie sorry about the detention but I got to know you (Yea!) my pinkie Mrs. Study Hall was Great. Even though Henly was dead and wore funny clothes! Then there was Homecoming that was cute, real cute. It could have been worse. I'll get the "B" sooner or later. Then there was "twirp" week, cold pizza, a Sad movie, and fire hydrants. Some people dont. Now there is the "there Tank". That starts a new chapter in my novel bring this back and I'll finish my novel. (next year). Youive been a great guy and I hope we can get to know eachother even better.
